BIO

Praharshita Pamadi is a South Indian multidisciplinary artist with a background in architecture and design. Her practice evolved from structured spatial thinking into an intuitive exploration of visual art, investigating emotion, symbolism, and inner experience through color and form.

GARDEN OF GOLDEN DREAMS

ABSTRACT ART

This work stems from a recurring dream in which shifting yellows and diffused light persisted.

Translating that vision, I constructed layered marks and hovering forms to hold a sense of magic, the ethereal, and the unknown an unstable space suspended between memory, atmosphere, and presence.

Acrylic on Canvas
4' x 4'
November 2025

DEATH OF TEA

ABSTRACT ART

Death of Tea reflects on the fading of everyday ritual and the quiet transformation of memory. Drifting lines and clustered forms echo remnants of warmth and presence, dissolving into fields of light and shadow.

The work meditates on impermanence, where familiar comforts slowly steep into silence and absence.

Acrylic on Canvas
14" x 12"

LAVENDER SEA OF SECRETS

ABSTRACT ART

Soft, unfolding forms emerge within a luminous field of color and delicate pattern, suggesting a space of growth, tenderness, and quiet transformation.

Balancing fragility with radiance, the painting reflects on blooming as both an inner and universal process, where light, memory, and life gently take form.

Acrylic on Canvas
4' x 2'
January 2025

BREATHING EARTH

DIPTYCH ABSTRACT ART

Breathing Earth is a mindful exploration of nature's quiet pulse — an abstract landscape where greens dissolve into one another like mist and memory.

The painting evokes the undergrowth of a forest, a space alive yet still, where new life constantly unfolds beneath the surface.

Acrylic on Canvas
4' x 2' each
August 2025

LILLIES UNDER THE SOIL

ABSTRACT ART

This painting explores growth, warmth, and quiet resilience through a layered field of repeated marks beneath a textured, earth-toned sky.

The dense pink surface suggests collective blooming or accumulated presence, while the golden upper space holds a sense of memory and atmosphere.

Acrylic on Canvas
20" x 16"
August 2025

BEYOND THE DARK SKY

ABSTRACT ART

A glowing horizontal surge cuts through a dark field, surrounded by scattered, constellation-like marks.

The work evokes a passage of energy or memory moving through space at once cosmic and intimate suggesting transformation, ignition, and the fragile moment when light emerges from darkness.
